

On this day in 1888, Jim Thorpe was born. Thorpe was an amazing athlete playing both professional sports and participating in the Olympics. Thorpe's achievements were recognized on a postage stamp. Think of another famous American you know about and create a postage stamp for their achievements.